Leonard Defeats Dundee in Bout in Which the "Scotch Wop" Is Twice Cleanly - Knocked Down.

Corright, 1916, by The Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World.) COTTY MONTIETH, interviewed a few weeks from now, will probably say: "Dundee was never knecked down in his life. The night he beat Benny Leonard at the Carden." &c., &c.

But that will be more managerial forgetfulness Last ought Benny Leonard knocked Johnny down twice They were nice clean kneekdowns, That Montieth's "Stotch Wop" in stantly leaged up after each knockdown, and in his usual India rabber style bounced back into the turmed of battle, makes no difference at all.

Dundee was down several times. but with the exception of the two secusions mentioned Leonard's fist didn't accelerate his plunge. He full down because of the violence of lib own manting efforts to connect with Benny's clusive chin, Once he skinned his knees by diving to the floor when Benny swiftly removed himself from where he had been standing a hundredth of a second before. Another time he took a header visat over Benny as Benny ducked to true Jem Driscoll style.

There was no lack of entimesant in Dundee's work. He was trying every minute of the time. But his action was all action of the legs and the flalling arms. Leonard outplanned and outboxed him. He fought a eleaner and better and more effective hight.

BEFORE the bout, when both were waiting in the ring. Scotts waiting in the ring, Scotty Montieth went to Leonard's corner and protested loudly about the sandages on Benny's hands. Dundee followed to strengthen the protest. Evidently Scotty was creating an impression that Leonard was trying to Leonard tried to wear hard bandages in a Syracuse bout made this may, The crowd began to boo Leonard, Re-Footty hoped for.

The Centrals led all the way Littlefield of Newark, who won an insisted that Dundee's hands should in the closing game. It was a hard beautiful to the country of the count other bandages of tape-the very thing for the evening. The scores:

Dundee deliberately uppercut Leonard when the latter dropped his guard at the order to break from a clinch. In the last round, when Leonard had slipped to the floor. Dundee offered a hand as if to help him up and instead struck at him the instant he rose from his kness.

BUT aside from these slight details there was nothing to aggressor, rushing furiously at Leonard. He missed a lot of blows when Leonard stepped aside, He floundered ! into the ropes. He was lightning fast

The Wendeils won the game, which was a seven-inning affair, by a score of 9 to 5. George Burns broke into the picture, slamming out a home run. Willie Cole also got a circuit clout agross, and Thorpe and Farrel smashed out triples.

Wendeil's team won because his charges fell upon the lobbing hall that Ralph Stroud served up for four runs in the sixth.

He capetts to be all right in a few days, and then will resume playing with his usual speed.
